That uncrowned King of every Democratic heart,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

The Georgia Legislature has passed a general local option law.

THE deaths from cholera in Egypt, on Saturday, numbered three hundred and ten.

SENATOR HAMPTON will accept a re-election, though he will not Wade into trouble to get it.

THE human body is seven-eighths water. With the average politician wind makes up the other eighth.

CAPT. T. D. MARCUM editor of the Catlettsburg Democrat, is a candidate for Assistant Clerk of the House.

THE MORMONS carried the elections in Utah about as easy as the Democrats walked away with Kentucky.

A MAN and woman, who had lately canvassed Maysville as beggars were arrested afterwards for being drunk and disorderly.

LOGAN McKee did not accompany the President to Yellowstone Park, but contented himself to fish in a small pool closer home.

EXPERTS say that the ocean holds in solution at least 2,000,000 tons of silver, equivalent in weight to 77,448,000 of our standard dollars.

CAPT. RHODES, another swimming fool, is about to tackle the whirlpool of Niagara, and will, it is to be hoped, go under as did Capt. Rhodes.

JIM HAMILTON and Jim Smith, two colored youths of Eminence, played with a dueling pistol yesterday. The bullet took refuge in Mr. Smith's left leg.

MOUNTAIN ECHO: A boy was tried recently in Clay county for carrying concealed weapon and acquitted upon the ground that he was too small to conceal it.

THE returns show that Asbury, the colored candidate for Register of the Land Office was scratched by 15,000 of his party. Cecil's majority will be about 60,000.

BLACKWELL'S Island, when it was purchased by the city of New York, fifty-five years ago, for $112,000, was a barren spot. Now it has been made blossom as the rose. It contains a penitentiary.

IN the conclave procession at San Francisco Tuesday, Sir Alexander Weed, aid to the Grand Commander of California, was thrown from his horse and had both legs broken.

A STEADY growth of sentiment favorable to the nomination of David Davis for President is reported among Western Republicans. If nominated he'll be Horace Greelyed beyond a doubt.

THE sum of $931,000, bequeathed by J. B. Gardner, of Boston, to help pay the National debt, was yesterday received at the at the Treasury Department and placed to the credit of patriotic donations.

OSCAR WILDE is smart. He lecturing now in England on what he knows about America. As his audiences are forced to trust him implicitly, knowing nothing of the subject themselves, he has them on the blind side.

THE attempt to pass Dr. Mary Walker as a female dude ought to be resented in the interests of the beautiful sex. There is the best reason for believing that Mary is the best walking advertisement of a patent clothes pin.

MR. MCGURRAY, at Henrietta, Texas shot and killed his wife while trying to slip a pistol under his pillow. Mr. McGurray should be careful not to dispose of his next wife in this way. People are apt to look with suspicion on such accidents.

A KENTUCKY reporter who made his escape before the copy was examined left an item at this office last night to the effect that a horse had jumped over a wall fifteen feet high. The animal was undoubtedly a thoroughbred. So was the reporter. He carries a prize hatchet.—[Cin. Enquirer.]

The Constitutional Convention.

It is assumed that the Constitutional convention was defeated at the late election. What then? Are the people of Kentucky bound through all time by the arbitrary action of the framers of the present Constitution, who for the protection of slavery inserted a provision intended to prevent any revision of their work? Is there no such thing as inherent sovereignty of the people? What is the meaning of the declaration of the existing Constitution that the people may at any time alter or abolish their government? Are these idle words, put in for buncombe, as it were?

If the people of Kentucky want a new Constitution—and a majority of those who take enough interest in affairs to vote have repeatedly said they do—they can secure the object in no other way than by asserting the inherent right which lies at the foundation of popular government.—[Cov. Commonwealth.]

THE death of the venerable jurist, Judge Black, will cause general and profound sorrow. He was a gentleman of the old school, universally respected for his high character, great learning, and extraordinary ability. Judge Black's professional career was brilliant. He was at the bar more than fifty-three years. Twice elected Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of his State, at the end of six years of service in that position he entered President Buchanan's Cabinet, exerted a powerful influence on the administration. He never held office afterward, but nevertheless figured prominently in politics, his opinions on questions of public policy always carrying much weight.

THE trial of Frank James is now going on at Gallatin, Mo. Charlie Ford and his father are present among the State's witnesses. Many strangers are in town, and a large force of special police has been sworn in to preserve order. The interest at present is great, as the first term cases are on the docket are the Winston train robbery in 1881, in which Conductor Westfall what killed, and the Gallatin bank robbery and the murder of Cashier Sheels in 1868.

GOV. BLACKBURN has not given the friends of Crittenden and Wing reason to believe that either of them would be pardoned. The Governor remarked further to the interviewer: "You may say one thing, and I think I am right in saying it; I intend to pardon every one in that penitentiary who I believe deserves executive clemency."

INVITATIONS to attend the inauguration of Governor-elect Knott will be sent to the President and his Cabinet, the Governors of all the States, to many representative men in each political party, and members of Congress, the Legislators. Mayors of cities, etc. The number of invitations sent out will exceed 1,000.—[C-J.]

IN good old colonial days ministers of the Gospel went to their pioneer churches with a Bible in one hand and a squirrel rifle in the other. Perhaps that Texas clergyman, who, after being shot last week, was found to have a five shooter concealed in his sleeve, was simply following in the footsteps of his forefathers.

WHEN Gov. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky delivers his inaugural address and refers to the "blue grass" girls of Kentucky, in his impressive style, there will be such a rush of marriageable men to her borders as will make Langtry and other professional beauties howl with envy.—[Pomeroy's Democrat.]

THE Governor refused to pardon Frank Steele, sent to the State Prison for life from Woodford county, for killing Capt. Gip Welsh. Steele is in jail at Versailles awaiting a decision on a motion for a new hearing by the Court of Appeals.

THE sale of toy pistols has been prohibited by statute in Ohio. This precaution may save the coming generation, but can't save the State from a Democratic victory this fall, nor can Charley Foster's "betrayed dollars" carry him through.

THE fusion of the better elements of the Republican and Democratic parties in county elections down in Mississippi proved the administration of local affairs whenever the movement has succeeded at the polls.

JUDGE REID has found a strong following throughout Bracken, Mason and Robertson, Nicholas and Fleming counties. If those counties are all as solid as Bourbon for him, he'll pass under the string like a whirlwind.

Outside the erection of the iron fence around the public square, there has not been a real exciting event transpired here since the lamps were broken and the Purnell House fired into.

Dr. Smith made a trip to Frankfort Tuesday, for the purpose of obtaining a pardon for Frost Rose. He reports a fair prospect, and thinks that the pardon will be granted in a day or two.

Mrs. Rev. T. P. C. Shellman died last Saturday at the home of Mrs. W. P. Van der Vorst, at Canaan, Ohio, and her remains were buried Wednesday at our cemetery. On Tuesday night the remains became so offensive to the boarders of the Fleming House, that they had to be removed to the cemetery vault at 10 o'clock.

NOW, THEREFORE, instead of consulting the thermometer, come once and interview US, and feel yourself a new man by donning some of our light, cool summer garments, and also REMEMBER THAT OUR LOW SCALE OF PRICES STILL HOLDS GOOD.
